This number is not located on your FSUcard and is not the same as your FSUID. Your FSUSN consists of nine characters beginning with letters and ending in numbers. You can find your FSUSN on-line as follows:

1. Login to <http://campus.fsu.edu> with your FSUID
2. Choose "Secure Apps"
3. Choose "FSUID Management"
4. Click "See your FSUSN"

Language of Award for which you are applying: _____

Were your 4 previous semesters of study at FSU? Yes _____ No _____

Graduates must provide the Graduate Office in the Department of Modern Languages with sufficient information to calculate (a) their overall GPA in all courses taken during the previous 4 semesters of study and (b) their GPA during the previous 4 semesters of study in all courses taken in the language of the award for which they are applying; for graduates on ABD status, GPA information is required on the 4 semesters preceding approval of the prospectus. If all 4 semesters of study were at FSU, the Graduate Office will access the relevant information on-line. If one or more of the 4 semesters of study was at an institution other than FSU, the applicant must provide with the application GPA transcripts of the courses concerned. If the applicant is an International student and does not have GPAs, he or she must provide documentation showing grades obtained.
