

Applied Masters Degree Program in:

DEMOGRAPHY

at Florida State University

12 Month Curriculum

33 credit-hours of graduate courses:

- Techniques of Demographic Analysis •
- Geographic Information Systems •
- Forecasting • Aging • Epidemiology •
- Fertility • Migration • Mortality •
  - Economic Demography •
  - International Populations •
  - Development Planning •

RECENT JOB PLACEMENTS:

- U.S. Census Bureau
- Environmental Systems Research Institute
- Washington State Demographer's Office
- Alaska Department of Labor
- Northrop Grumman Consultants
- University of Georgia
- Florida Department of Health
- New York City Planning Department
- International Brotherhood of Teamsters

Conference Presentations

Regional and national opportunities to present paper topics at the Southern Demographic Association and Population Association of America.

Recent Summer Internships:

Alaska Department of Labor

(Juneau, AK)

Economic Commission for Europe

(Geneva, Switzerland)

Florida Department of Health

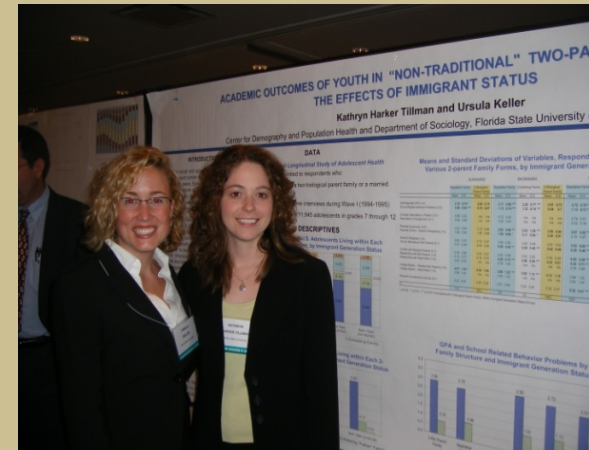

(Tallahassee, FL)

Lapkoff & Gobalet Consulting

(Berkeley, CA)

U.S. Census Bureau

(Washington, DC)

Student Ursula Keller (l) and Dr. Kathi Tillman (r) with their award winning poster at the Population Association of America meetings in NY, 2007

For more information visit our website at

popcenter.fsu.edu

Grads Carrie Simon, Claire Shook-Finucane, and Carrie Werner form part of FSU's presence at the Census Bureau.

Students in the southeast can qualify for in-state Florida tuition when they enroll. The Academic Common Market maintained by the SREB makes this financial opportunity possible. Ask your local university for details about the ACM.